

Webelos Transition Fair

It's that time of the year again, when Webelos II cub scouts are looking to join a Boy Scout Troop. The Webelos Transition Fair is held each year to allow Webelos II's and their families to meet members of the Boy Scout Troops in the Saddleback District and find out which one best suits the needs and interests of the boy and his family. We need your troop to participate in the event and showcase what your troop is all about.
